30 LUNCHBOX NOTES for kids

Give your child a little bit of wisdom each day with these simple notes based on verses from the Bible. Print the inspirational messages, slip them into your kid's lunchbox, tape them on the bathroom mirror, or hand it to them after dinner. You can also leave a personalized note on the back for an extra special touch.

If you need wisdom
today, God can give it.
Simply ask, "LORD, will you give me wisdom?"

Proverbs 2:6

Look for a chance to do something good for someone today. It is wise to do good if you can.

Proverbs 3:27

God cares for your life
in ways you can't see with your eyes. It is wise to trust Him.

Proverbs 3:5

It is wise to pay attention to the words we speak.
Work to be honest with your comments.

Proverbs 4:24

Whether it be activities at school or home, it is wise to work hard and plan for whatever you do.

Proverbs 6:6-8

Wisdom helps you live the life that God wants you to have. You can find that wisdom by listening to God's word and following it.

Proverbs 7:2

Did you know that wisdom is more important than money or diamonds?!? It can help you with life way more than dollars and coins.

Proverbs 8:11

If you want wisdom,
first show respect and admiration to God.

Proverbs 9:10

One way to care
for yourself is to be a hard worker.
Proverbs 10:4

Hating someone causes fights, but loving someone
can bring peace.
Proverbs 10:12

Being kind has lots of rewards for you, but being cruel to others
can hurt you.

Proverbs 11:17

It is wise to give freely, so look for ways to give something away for free. Is it a positive word?

An item? A kind act?

Proverbs 11:24

Did you know that generous people are people who feel good and energized? It is wise to be generous.

Proverbs 11:25

.....

Did you know that it is wise to care for animals? God wants his people to care
for their animals.

Proverbs 12:10

l

Anxiety weighs you down, but a kind word
will cheer it up.
Proverbs 12:25

Don't be afraid to ask questions and get help
because that shows
you have wisdom.
Proverbs 13:10

When someone says
something to you, it is wise to think about it before you believe it is true.

Proverbs 14:15

If someone is angry, a gentle response will help calm
them, but a harsh response will make it worse.

Proverbs 15:1

If you need to make a plan
about a hangout with friends or a school project, it is wise
to ask others for advice.

Proverbs 15:22

When someone who cares about you corrects you, it is wise to listen.

Proverbs 15:31

If you need to make decisions about school, sports, theater, or other activities, it is wise to talk to God about it all. He cares.

Proverbs 16:3

It may feel better to show you are stronger and more powerful than others, but it is wise to stay in control and be patient.

Proverbs 16:32

It is wise to let go of getting revenge on someone who hurt you.
Forgiveness can help you.

Proverbs 17:9

It is wise to control yourself
and your words.
Proverbs 17:27

When you listen
without interrupting,
you are wise.
Proverbs 18:13

Whether it be on the playground, at home, or in class, wise people bring peace to a fight.
Proverbs 20:3

When someone wrongs you,
God cares. It is wise to ask Him to handle it and show you what to do next.

Proverbs 20:22

It is wise to plan and work hard because it leads to success, but cheating
leads to problems.

Proverbs 21:5

When God sees people, he doesn't look at their clothes, house, car, or shoes. He sees people's hearts.

Proverbs 22:2

Don't wear yourself out trying to get rich because money can be gone like a popsicle on a hot summer's day.

Proverbs 23:4-5
