

Summer

BUCKET LIST

30 FAMILY IDEAS

1. Help someone you may not know, (invite them over for a bbq, cut their grass, weed their lawn, etc.).
2. Make a commitment to do family devotions at least twice a week.
3. Set aside one night a week just to have fun together, (movie night, game night, etc.).
4. Eat as many meals together as possible.
5. Tell your kids the story of how you learned the love of Christ.
6. Write a list of things you are grateful for and share around the table.
7. Tell your kids the story of when they were born and how that made you feel.
8. (Parents) Share with your kids a tough time in your life and how God got you through it.
9. (Kids) Share what you want to be when you grow up and why.
10. (Parents) Share with your kids what you wanted to be when you were younger.
11. (Kids) Do a chore around the house without being told.
12. Eat dessert for dinner!
13. Have a popsicle on the porch and share a favorite scripture. Don't have a favorite? Find one!
14. Go to the zoo and make up new names for the animals like Adam did.
15. Go out for ice cream, just because.
16. Set up a lemonade stand to raise money for a local charity or ministry.
17. Give up one thing this summer to help focus on God.
18. Everyone draw a self-portrait with chalk on the sidewalk/driveway.
19. (Parents) Tell the kids what it was like when you were their age.
20. (Parents) Tell the kids about your parents, grandparents and great-grandparents, if possible.
21. (Kids) Help around the house with chores for a week without complaining.
22. Bake something for a neighbor.
23. Find an adult or teen from Church going on a mission trip and commit to praying for them.
24. Find an opportunity to serve on a Sunday in Church together as a family.
25. Collect seashells on the beach. Talk about how God made us in His own image, and yet we are all different, just like the shells.
26. Have a pajama dance party!
27. Build a fort and watch a movie from inside.
28. Go fishing and read Matthew 4:18-22.
29. Have a day where no one gets out of their pajamas for the entire day.
30. Post a photo on Rockpointe Family Ministry's facebook page of your family doing something silly!

